Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost

All that the mortal eye beholds
 Is water as we pour it.
 Before the eye of faith unfolds
 The pow'r of Jesus' merit.
 For here it sees the crimson flood
 To all our ills bring healing;
 The wonders of His precious blood
 The love of God revealing,
 Assuring His own pardon.

Labor Day Consecration

Immanuel Lutheran Church

A warm welcome to our guests who are with us this morning in Divine Service! Please sign our guest book in the Narthex.
 If you do not already have a church home,
 we invite you to make this church your home.

Welcome to our guests – Welcome to our Divine Service at Immanuel. We are sincerely pleased to have you with us today. You are about to have a conversation with God, in God’s own words. If you are familiar with the Bible, you will recognize the words that go into your ears and come out of your mouth. This is the Historic Liturgy, the structure of which goes all the way back to the days of Moses. We call it Divine Service, because the Lord Himself bestows on us His gifts of grace that Jesus earned for us through His righteous life and atoning death through His Word and Sacraments. Please read our Communion statement below.

Please sign your name in our guest register found in the narthex or sign the guest card, which is in the pews, and introduce yourself to the greeters and Pastor Colageo.

Families worshipping together – We encourage families to worship together. If your child becomes restless during worship, you are welcome to use the nursery located just outside the Narthex. An usher would be happy to help direct you.

Cell phones – Please turn off your cell phones and other electronic devices before you enter the sanctuary.

Reverence in the Sanctuary –During the Service, the quiet times are an intentional part of the liturgy, such as during the playing of the prelude, communion, and times of prayer. Please help us maintain a reverent atmosphere by not talking in the sanctuary before or during the service. Thank you.

Keep Communion cups visible – During Communion, if you use an individual cup, please keep it uncovered and visible so that Pastor Colageo can see who is waiting for the common cup.

Communion Statement: This morning, we joyfully celebrate the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. We believe that when we receive the bread and wine, we receive Christ's body and blood for the forgiveness of sins, we know not how. As we receive this holy mystery, we also give public confession to our unity in the Christian faith. We therefore invite all communicant members of any congregation of the Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod to commune. Guests are invited to come forward to receive a blessing. As it was with the very first disciples of Jesus, our practice is to receive instruction in the Faith leading to Holy Communion. If you would like to join our instruction class, Pastor would love to instruct you.

Masked Area - Seating in the rear left of the sanctuary marked with blue tape on the pew is reserved for those with contagious health concerns. Masks are required in this section. All other areas of the church are mask optional.

The Dedication:

Prayer of Consecration for our work

P: Here are the hours of our days turned into offerings for You. Here is the money we made by working: Dear Carpenter, You make it holy, holy as the money You earned here once. Take it as a gift of love from us, offered to You, C: HOLY UNTO THE LORD.

P: Here are the tools of the callings You gave us: Here is what You put in our hands to make good happen in this world. Sanctify our tools like the saws and hammers You used. Sanctify them as tools of righteousness, offered to You, C: HOLY UNTO THE LORD.

P: Here are our hands, our bodies, and our minds, washed in Your blood, anointed with Your Spirit, body and soul, since You want us, since You loved us and bought us for Your own, here we are, offered to You, C: HOLY UNTO THE LORD.

P: Jesus, Lord, give us grace to receive Your grace. Give us grace to work hard and well, Give us grace to bless this world with our minds and our muscles. Work with us until the work is done. until morning comes and we enter the reward You earned, Let us work with You, offered to You, C: HOLY UNTO THE LORD forever. Amen.

I will offer the thanksgiving sacrifice and call on the name of the Lord.
C: O Lord, my strength, I love You!

(After prayer, the Congregation will pick up their tools and return to their pews.)

Benediction

(Numbers 6:22-27)

P: The Lord bless you and keep you.
The Lord make His face shine upon you and be gracious to you.
The Lord lift up His countenance on you and + give you peace.

1. My Father is that Builder who made skies and seas and lands. My Brother is that Carpenter who labored with His hands. Six days They worked, and one sweet day They set apart and blessed. The work week is my family's way and so is Sabbath rest.
2. God farmeth all this green, wide earth; by His hands I am fed. So I, too, have my little ones who look to me for bread. Christ Jesus labored hard to meet the debt I could not pay. With Him I work, like Him for love, and earn to give away.
3. Ah, Holy Ghost, come fill this child, that through this earthly night All earthly things in truth I see, lit by Thine honest light. Lord, let my mind and body toil, all imitating Thee While my heart singeth in the shade of God at work for me.

Thanksgiving

The Confession of Sins

LSB p. 184 (Hebrews 4:16, 10:23)

P: Beloved in the Lord. Let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins to God our Father, imploring Him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

Our help is in the name of the Lord, (Psalm 124:8)
C: who made heaven and earth.

P: I said, I will confess my transgressions to the Lord,
C: and You forgave the iniquity of my sin. (Psalm 32:5)

(We kneel.)

P: O almighty God,

C: merciful Father, I, a poor, miserable sinner, confess to You all my sins and iniquities with which I have ever offended You and justly deserved Your punishment now and forever. But I am heartily sorry for them and sincerely repent of them, and I pray You of Your boundless mercy and for the sake of the holy, innocent, bitter sufferings and death of Your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, to be gracious and merciful to me, a poor sinful being.

P Let us pray.

C: O God, Builder and preserver of the universe,
You have recreated us in Your own image, also to work beside You.
Defend and avenge all honest laborers.
Shut the mouth of satan,
who exalts uselessness and slanders the work you have called us to do.
Save us from laziness, lest we despise Your will for us.
Save us from greed and ambition,
lest we make our work our god and lose Your kingdom.
While our hearts are set on Heaven, establish our work on earth,
so that good may come into the world through us.
And fill us with the Holy Spirit that, whatever we do,
we may dare to do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, resting in Him, who with You and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one eternal God, now and forever.

Proper Preface

P: It is truly fitting, right, and salutary that we should at all times and in all places give thanks to You, holy Lord, almighty Father, everlasting God, who with Your only-begotten Son and the Holy Spirit are one God, one Lord. In the confession of the only true God, we worship the Trinity in person and the Unity in substance, of majesty coequal. Therefore with angels and archangels and with all the company of heaven we laud and magnify Your glorious name, evermore praising You and saying:

+ Old Testament Reading + Genesis 1:26-2:3

²⁶Then God said, "Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness; let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth."²⁷ So God created man in His own image; in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them.²⁸ Then God blessed them, and God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply; fill the earth and subdue it; have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over every living thing that moves on the earth."²⁹ And God said, "See, I have given you every herb that yields seed which is on the face of all the earth, and every tree whose fruit yields seed; to you it shall be for food."³⁰ Also, to every beast of the earth, to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, in which there is life, I have given every green herb for food"; and it was so.³¹ Then God saw everything that He had made, and indeed it was very good. So the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

^{2:1} Thus the heavens and the earth, and all the host of them, were finished.

² And on the seventh day God ended His work which He had done, and He rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had done.³ Then God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, because in it He rested from all His work which God had created and made.

L: This is the word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Gradual

Psalm 34:9, 19, alt.

Fear the Lord, | you His saints,*
for those who fear Him lack | nothing!
Many are the afflictions of the | righteous,*
but the Lord delivers him out | of them all.

+ Epistle Reading + 2 Corinthians 5:14-21

¹⁴For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one died for all; as a result all died.¹⁵ And He died for all, in order that those who live should no longer live for themselves, but for the one who died for them and was raised.

¹⁶So then, from now on we know no one from a worldly perspective, if indeed we have known Christ from a worldly perspective, but now we know Him this way no longer.¹⁷ Therefore if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come.

¹⁸And all these things are from God, who has reconciled us to himself through Christ, and who has given us the ministry of reconciliation,¹⁹ namely, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation.²⁰ Therefore we are ambassadors on behalf of Christ, as if God were imploring you through us. We beg you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.²¹ He made the one who did not know sin to be sin on our behalf, in order that we could become the righteousness of God in Him.

L: This is the word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

¹⁶ For this reason the Jews persecuted Jesus, and sought to kill Him, because He had done these things on the Sabbath. ¹⁷ but Jesus answered them, "My Father is working until now, and I myself work." ¹⁸For this reason, therefore, the Jews were seeking all the more to kill Him, because not only had He loosed the Sabbath, but He had also said that God was His own Father, thus making Himself equal to God.

The Apostles' Creed

C: I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.
And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried.
He descended into hell.
The third day He rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven
and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty.
From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy Christian Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body and the life everlasting. Amen.
